

PK = primary key (bold, underlined) | FK = foreign key (italic) | UK = unique | UK* = composite unique | ? = nullable | crow's foot = many side | dashed = optional FK | FK column name written on each line

Member 01 - Accounts

Member 02 - Route & Tracking

Member 03 - Tickets, Seats & Inquiries

Member 04 - Notifications, Delay & Admin overview

UK* composites: ROUTE_STOP(routeld, stopSequence), SAVED_ROUTE(userId, routeld), ALERT_SUBSCRIPTION(userId, routeld), SEAT_BOOKING(tripId, seatNumber) - partial unique index where status = 'booked'.

20 tables, 41 foreign keys. In MongoDB each table is a collection and each FK is an ObjectId reference (ref:) with a unique index where UK is shown.